Dear Sir:

In response to your letter of June 20, 1970, suggesting another meeting to discuss this subject, the Secret Service is attempting to be as helpful and responsive as possible.

We have, however, taken the position that the Archives is the designated repository for the records of the deliberation of the Warren Commission and the evidence which was gathered and available to the Commission and its staff. The Secret Service complied with the directives of the Comission and the instructions of the designated officials.responsible for the preservation of the records in this matter subsequent to the deliberations of the Warren Commission.

We feel the Archives should be the source of all the information and documents you are seeking.

Very truly yours,

Thomas J. Kelley
